THE POWER OF THE TONGUE

Proverbs 18:21 (NKJV)

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Christians need to be thoughtful and careful in the words they use and how they use them. Words can have a lasting effect, both good and bad, on others and themselves.

My Loving God, I know my tongue can do both good and bad to others and myself. Help me to respect its power and use it in a righteous way, to reflect Your love and glory. Amen.

Compassion International—Kenya

As they watched athletes compete at this year's Olympic Games, kids all over the world were inspired to take up new sports. But many families living in poverty struggle to afford essentials, let alone extracurricular activities.

Compassion's church partner in Kenya launched the skating program in the Maasai community where it was more common to see a wild elephant than a child wearing roller skates. Families in the region had only ever seen the sport on TV. Compassion wanted to expose the children to more than they see around them.

Abigail whizzes past, in her neon-yellow safety vest. On Sundays, the community gathers in this room to worship. The church hall has been transformed into an indoor roller-skating rink. For Abigail, it's not about being the best. She and millions of children like her simply want the chance to participate.
