DO WHAT IS WRITTEN

Joshua 1:8 (NKJV)

8 This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

God calls all Christians to be faithful and obedient to His word. That call also informs them of the resultant blessings from that faithfulness and obedience in this life and, more importantly, the life to come.

Judge of the Earth, I understand that meditating on Your word, and observing to do all according to it, is beneficial for me. May I not allow any distractions that would divert me, day or night, from the reading and application of Your word in my life. Amen.

Justin Brown—Philippines

Justin has the opportunity to mentor students enrolled in the Mentor Model program at The Master’s Seminary (TMS). This is a distance learning program which allows students to pursue a Master of Divinity at TMS without leaving their homes and ministries.

This semester Justin is meeting via Zoom with Pastor Rodel, a graduate of The Expositor’s Academy (TEA) preaching program, who is now part of the TMS Mentor Model. Pastor Rodel was saved in high school and began pastoral ministry in 2000. Since then, he has served as a pastor in several churches.

Pastor Rodel has long had a burden to help strengthen and encourage other pastors in their ministries. Please pray that he and the other Mentor Model students with TEA will have wisdom and stamina as they study while continuing to serve in their churches.
