BE THANKFUL TO GOD

Psalm 100:4 (NKJV)

4 Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.

As we enter this season of thanksgiving, there are many things to be thankful for. But above all those things, we are most thankful for our great and almighty God. He is the One who truly deserves our heartfelt thankfulness.

God of all Grace, I am overjoyed to be able to enter into Your gates with thanksgiving and Your courts with praise. Thank you for who You are and all that you have done for me. I bless Your holy name. Amen.

Justin Brown—Philippians

The semester has gone well with me teaching two classes and Rebecca helping to facilitate the Shepherd's Wives fellowship. The month of November is quite busy for us with several ministry and teaching opportunities.

Last week I was in the city of Baguio to help teach the second class in our preaching program for a group of students. This Thursday, I will be teaching at an expository preaching conference at Soli Deo Gloria Christian Church in Davao City. Soli Deo Gloria is one of The Expositor’s Academy key ministry partners. The elders have also invited me to preach next Sunday.

Please pray for me as I teach, that the Lord would work in the hearts of His people through His Word.
